Wine Bottling

Friday 15th November 9am start

Serafino Winery

Kangarilla Road, McLaren Vale
(formerly McLaren's on the Lake)

The wine

2010 Serafino McLaren Vale Cabernet Sauvignon

2010 Serafino McLaren Vale Shiraz

The club has 3000L of wine to bottle. We need all the help we can get so please come along and help. It's also a great social day. Lunch will be provided.

To make this bottling a success we need every club member to sell some wine, and we would like wine to be preordered and paid for and if possible picked up on the day. This is the club's major fund raiser for the year.

An order form is attached to the newsletter, extra order forms will be available at the next meeting. Please could you let Steve (Ph8278 5718) know if you are coming so we can organise the catering.

WINERY TOUR

SUNDAY 20th OCTOBER

The bus will be departing at 8.45am from the normal place on Shepherds Hill Road opposite the Shell Service Station.

Lunch at McLaren Vale Hotel

We have also expanded the Menu for lunch at the McLaren Vale Hotel – in addition to Roast of the Day, Chicken or Beef Schnitzel & Fish we have also added Caesar Salad (which can be made vegetarian) and Salt & Pepper Squid. We will be pre-ordering the meals and there will be an order form at the September meeting to make your choice of meals. Also there is BYO with a $10 corkage. Members can bring their own wine and pay corkage or buy drinks from the bar. Please contact Ian Maxfield Ph 8370 5400 and let him know your meal preference.

A full itinerary for the trip was in the August newsletter.

ANAWBS 2013

CHAIRMAN'S REPORT

We can reflect on the 2013 ANAWBS Show, the 34th occasion of this national amateur competition, with much pride. That two South Australian amateur wine clubs – Adelaide and Blackwood – have continued this excellent tradition, of a show of such high standards, is a credit to not only the Clubs, but importantly the ANAWBS Committee.

I cannot stress strongly enough the role of this Committee, meeting over the course of the year, planning and preparing for the annual show, which is of a semi-professional level. Without their passion, dedication and sheer determination, and that of past Committees, ANAWBS would not be the show it is today. With over 500 beer and wine entries, ANAWBS has been a success by any measure.

This Show would not be possible without the generous assistance from the Beer and Wine Judges; to all of them, our sincere thanks for not only your judging, but the valuable and highly informative comments. All entrants cannot help but, gain in their understanding through this evaluation of their wine.

ANAWBS began in 1980 in association with the McLaren Vale Bushing Festival, in quite different surrounds from the excellent Waite Campus venue, and has continued to develop and expand since then, in both its professionalism and its size and growth. The original Committee who initiated this Show should be so pleased to, not only realise that their dream has continued, but as importantly, it has matured and grown. That first show had 88 entries.

The tradition of ANAWBS will remain, as long as each Host Club has members with passion and vision, individuals willing to allow amateur wine-makers to present their wines, and be judged by their peers.
