ANAWBS 2014

CHAIRMAN'S REPORT

Well, the 35th Amateur Wine and Beer Show is over, and in 2014 it was once again a great success!

This Show is unique in its use of experienced judges, often from industry backgrounds, to evaluate amateur wines and beers at a professional standard. The comments and feedback provided to the brewers and winemakers can only be of benefit to those individuals seeking to benchmark their entries, which are often crafted specifically for the Show.

I would like to thank the members of the organising committee for their dedication and the two host clubs, the Amateur Winemakers and Brewers Club of Adelaide, and the Blackwood Amateur Wine Makers and Brewers Club for their ongoing support. There is a vast amount of work that goes on behind the scenes to plan and prepare for this annual event. This year we welcomed several new members to the committee, and it was pleasing to see additional volunteers put their hand up to assist in stewarding, receiving entries, arranging the awards presentation and cleaning up the venue afterwards.

In particular, I would like to acknowledge the beer and wine judges who give their time and expertise to maintain the high standards of the Show, and the various sponsors who assist with defraying the cost of trophies and medals. Please support their businesses in return.

Finally, congratulations to all those hardworking brewers and winemakers who made the effort to enter over 500 wines and beers into the competition. The tradition of the Show will continue as long as there is passion to make it happen.

Cheers!
